what's it all about?

What is interGen?

It is a new term, short for Inter-generational, signifying the joining of peoples from multiple generations. This intergenerational collaboration will be an open, compassionate process modeling the ability to collectively hold a multiplicity of viewpoints and paradigms through circle discussion groups, heart storming, and experiential exercises. Our symbiosis can hold space for the emergence of a higher consciousness field to awaken a system-wide social transformation.

Translation If we gather multiple generations in one magnificent location, open to our shared brilliance and release set patterns so we breathe as one, we might just awaken minds and enliven hearts to transform society. Wanna Play?

Why is an intergenerational dialogue necessary?

Every generation has something crucial to add to the conversation. This dialogue acknowledges the wisdom inherent in all of us.

"The crisis today within humanity and the biosphere of all life on earth is of such magnitude that only the united and heart inspired efforts of all generations - including those still arriving - can set causes in motion that will offset the current dangerous course we are on. We will succeed because there is no force more powerful than human hearts and minds moving in co-creation with the world of Spirit and the world of nature." GORDON DAVIDSON

Who should attend interGen?

Anyone, from all age groups, who are concerned with the future and want to take part in the healing of our world.

"We seek people of all ages who see the unfortunate separateness between generations and are willing to consciously change this by focusing in light and deeply connecting with each other, thereby opening to a cosmic shift within. Once reconnected we can easily see the gifts of each age group and bridge perceived chasms to create through the wisdom of all." GAIL MOTYKA

"It is all our responsibility as consciously aware humans, to assist in the illumination of a path for humanity to clear its way out of the present crisis we share on earth. It will take the wisdom and heart of every generation in cooperation to create this opening. This interGen series will serve as a catalyst to inspire and mobilize this movement." JUDY GABRIEL

How can this gathering actually shift some of these patterns?

Truly we don't want to shift to a new set of patterns, but rather to unleash our highest potential beyond concepts. Together we can focus on the core intents of love and peace, resulting in a more responsive and open society.

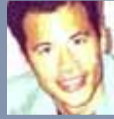

"What can we each do to co-create a socially just, environmentally sustainable and spiritually fulfilling human presence on earth? Acknowledging that one of the failures of the old paradigm is the top-heavy, "mind-centric" nature of it, we will share the experience of listening, speaking and thinking from our hearts and experiment with ways to embody the shift that is already happening." LAURA WHITNEY

Let's open up an environment of dialogue, explanation, and curiosity together—to see what types of concerns, values and authentic expression is governing us together. The journey of going into the new world, into the new paradigm of creating a healthier, sustainable, just world—requires an inter-generational connection." SHILOH BOSS

"We seek to ask to the deep questions and look to reweave the cultural fabric that we live in. We aim to tap into the ancient energies that have unfolded through time through each generation. We will see each other. And we will be moved." ALPHA LO

"How do we take off the layers of separation that keep us numb and 'safe'? How do we bring the light and love into the scary places? It's time to share the love between the generations. Love is timeless. Therefore, interGen." DAVID CHANG

What is the overall planetary movement called "interGen" about?

An intergenerational effort to transform the planet.

"It's about nothing less than catalyzing the building of a new, heart centered culture on earth, by tapping into a synergized co-creative engagement of every willing and able soul from every generation." GORDON DAVIDSON

"We are the weaving mycelia threads connecting and nourishing the roots of a regenerative cultural eco-system" JAY MA

What do we envision will come out of the gathering?

This will not be an isolated event; it will seed a larger movement of concern and conscious collaboration.

"This weekend will catalyze future gatherings of multigenerational groups addressing issues of environment, politics, business, the increase in communication networks between generations, and new ideas to help coordinate, inspire and co-create solutions for a peaceful planet." JUDY GABRIEL
